HM Sisters' Annual Tradition Celebrates Jesus' Birth Around the World

Villa Maria, PA — Celebrate the holiday season by joining the Sisters of the Humility of Mary for their annual Nativity Display, an indoor Advent tradition featuring hundreds of nativity sets from around the world.

The Villa Maria Nativity Display will be held from 12 to 5 p.m., Dec. 2 and Dec. 9 at Villa Maria Community Center, 225 Villa Marie Road, Villa Maria, Pa. Admission and parking are free. Private group tours are available for schools, churches, and other organizations from Dec. 3-7 upon request.

The event will also include entertainment from local musicians and choirs. The Villa Farm will sell fresh poinsettias, swags and wreaths, and The Villa Shoppe will offer Fair Trade items, nativities and unique Christmas gifts for purchase.

A meatloaf dinner will be held from 12-4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 2 and a spaghetti dinner will be held from 12-4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9. Meatloaf dinner tickets are $10 for a large and $7 for a small, and spaghetti dinner tickets are $8 for a large and $5 for a small. Tickets can be purchased in advance at The Villa Shoppe during regular shop hours (Monday, Tuesday, Friday, 11-2:30) or at the door. Take out is available and children 4 and under are free. Both dinners feature Villa Farm raised products.

For more information, visit humilityofmary.org or call 724-964-8920 x3208.

Villa Maria Community Center is located 1 mile south of U.S. Route 422 off Evergreen Road (near the Ohio/Pennsylvania border), 10 miles east of Youngstown, Ohio, and 11 miles east of New Castle, Pa.

The Sisters of the Humility of Mary is a community of women religious, whose motherhouse, Villa Maria Community Center is located in Villa Maria, Pa.
